The School

St. Joseph Catholic High School is a college preparatory, co-educational school. The school system was founded in 1894, and the system expanded to include freshman and sophomore high school classes in 1993. In 1998, St. Joseph Catholic High School graduated its first senior class. The secondary campus in Bryan, Texas serves students in grades sixth through twelve. The high school maintains an enrollment of approximately 90 students which helps facilitate a small student-to-teacher ratio. St. Joseph consistently maintains a 100% graduation rate.

Mission

St. Joseph Catholic School System provides a Catholic environment for spiritual faith formation and educational excellence.

Admission

St. Joseph Catholic School enrolls qualified students without regard to race, gender, religious affiliation, ethnic, or national origin. Students are eligible to attend St. Joseph School unless there is a specific educational or emotional need that cannot be met.

Dual Credit Courses

Dual credit English and History courses are offered to high school juniors and seniors in conjunction with Blinn College.

Memberships and Accreditation:

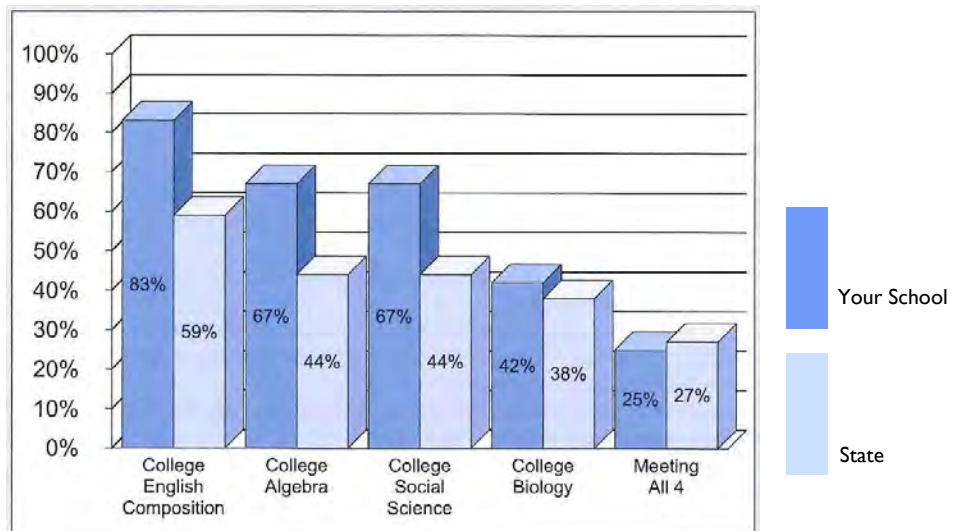

St. Joseph Catholic School is accredited by Texas Catholic Conference Education Department (TCCED) and the Southern Association of Colleges & Schools (SACS). St. Joseph is also a member of the National Catholic Education Association (NCEA).

Extracurricular Activities

St. Joseph Catholic School is a member of the Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS) through which our students are able to participate in a variety of activities including athletic, academic, and fine art competitions. St. Joseph's Athletic Dept. offers football, volleyball, cross country, soccer, basketball, baseball, track, and softball. In addition, high school students routinely advance to state level competition in academics, band, choir, and art.
