Thanks, Coach Herbert, for the photos!

Another week down! While this week was full of field trips and exciting events, we are now just one week away from Thanksgiving break!

On Tuesday, the seniors went to the Renaissance Festival, while first grade traveled to Washington on the Brazos. This correlated with each of their recent studies.

On Wednesday, fifth grade put on "Life in the Colonies" -- a living history museum. The students were dressed in costume, and visitors were able to learn how the colonists lived, worked and what foods they ate. Great job, fifth grade!

The Elementary School choir traveled to Austin today to sing in the Choir Festival.

The countdown is on until the Eagles football team heads to playoffs next week. The details are TBD, but there is excitement and anticipation in the air!

High school basketball is in full swing as our girls basketball team is currently playing in a tournament. Good luck, Eagles!

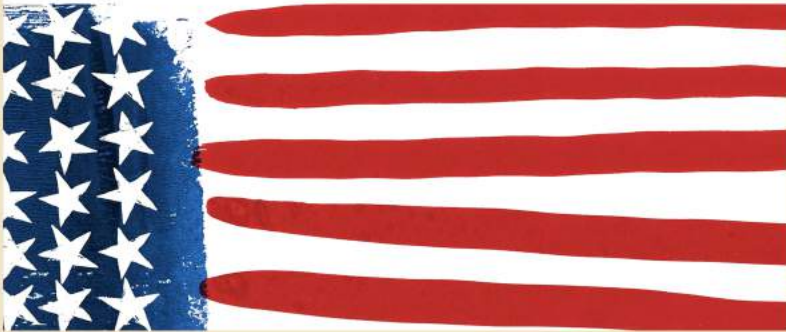

Looking ahead at next week, our Veterans Day celebrations will take place on Monday, Nov. 12. The Elementary Campus celebration will be held at 8:15 a.m. in the MPR. The Secondary Campus celebration will be held at 9:25 a.m. in Christ the Good Shepherd.

Be sure to keep up with us on our website and social media for the latest news and announcements!
