*On Wednesday, Mr. Rike got a lesson on how to fold the American flag.
Thanks, fifth graders, for the lesson!*

NEWS FOR AUG. 20-24

Well, we've successfully made it through two full weeks now. Our students have settled into their routines and are being kept busy with quizzes, tests and projects. Picture day was on Tuesday at the Elementary Campus and Thursday at the Secondary Campus. Today is the last day to order pictures before a late fee is added. The link to order your student's pictures can be found on the school website. Next week is an exciting one with our Kickoff Pep Rally, Book Fair opening and the first official football game of the season. Be sure you're keeping up with us on our social media!

High School Volleyball played Monday against BVCHEA and in a tournament on Thursday. They play again tomorrow in the Trinity Tournament. Junior High Volleyball played Monday against Allen Academy and on Thursday against KOR. Eagles Football have also been putting in the time and work. They had a scrimmage last Saturday against BVCHEA and played again last night in an Emery-Weiner Joint Scrimmage with Covenant Christian. They play again on Saturday, Sept. 1 against East Texas Christian Academy at Allen Academy. Go Eagles!
