A BLAST FROM THE PAST

2018 Homecoming Court (L-R, F-B): Avery Woodard, Sarah Boriskie, Rebecca Bienski, Cole Gibson, Noah McClure, Jaxon Hayles, Reghan Millhollon, Tatum West, Emily Bienski, Emma Drabek, Izabelle Barajas, Taryn Brightwell

High School Cheerleaders leading the elementary students in cheers at Wednesday's Elementary Pep Rally.

It was a blast from the past this week as our students participated in this year's homecoming theme, "Dancing through the Decades!" From dress up days, to the elementary pep rally, our students came together to celebrate homecoming week.

Monday's spirit theme was "Rock Grace Christian," so our students and teachers dressed in their best '50s outfits. Tuesday's theme was "Popping through the Decades," and our students enjoyed soda pop during lunch. Wednesday's theme was "Out Groove Grace Christian," which meant our high schoolers wore their groovy '70s outfits.

The elementary pep rally was on Wednesday. Students gathered in the elementary gym to cheer and play games with the junior high and high school cheerleaders and football players. The elementary students look forward to this event every year, especially when they compete in the victory yells. This year, second grade won the spirit stick. Mr. George passed down the spirit stick to Mrs. Castillo.

Thursday's spirit theme was "Throwback Thursday." Music from different decades was played during passing periods. After Mass, the homecoming court went out to the complex to rehearse for tonight's halftime festivities, followed by lunch at Papa Perez.

On Thursday morning, our first graders had their annual Angel Mass. They dressed up as angels, read mass parts and sang a song. One sweet tradition is that Mrs. Lisa delivers cupcakes to their classes once they get back to the school.

Today's spirit theme was "Spirit through the Decades." Secondary campus students wore purple and gold in their favorite decade. They had their homecoming pep rally to pump up the student body for tonight's big game.

The Homecoming Game is tonight! Varsity plays at 7 p.m., and Junior high plays before them at 5 p.m. The dance is tomorrow from 8-11 p.m. at the Parish Activity Center. For more pictures from the week, be sure to check out our Facebook page.
